New Mergers Alliance Office in Australia

Singhi Advisors, a leading independent corporate finance advisor and Indian member of Mergers Alliance, has recently expanded their network of offices to include a representative office in Melbourne, Australia. This Representative office will be headed by Mr Michael Parkinson who is also now an Independent Director on the Board of Singhi Advisors Limited. Mr Parkinson's profile is provided below.

Michael Parkinson CBE. Economics graduate from Cambridge specializing latterly in development economics, MBA from Stanford, executive experience with Unilever, Citibank and Grindlays Bank: private consultant working with major Australian companies seeking to expand overseas out of Australia: until recently Company Director for very successful Australian funds management business with A$20 billion plus under management, and more recently Company director of a small listed Australian property development company. Conducted business in UK, USA, India, the Gulf countries, Bangladesh, Switzerland, France, Spain, and several South East Asian countries.

This addition of a new office location in Australia is not only important for Singhi Advisors but also for the members of Mergers Alliance ('MA'). It brings the total number of MA offices up to 32 and gives the members access to over 26 financial markets world wide.
